4. All requests for accreditation must be submitted to the United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs no later than 8 September 2025 using the online form available at <https://bit.ly/4oxoNed>. A mission statement or summary of work of the organization should be provided.

V. Taking action on sexual harassment

13. The organizations of the United Nations system are committed to enabling events at which everyone can participate in an inclusive, respectful and safe environment. All United Nations conferences and events are guided by the highest ethical and professional standards, and all participants are expected to behave with integrity and respect towards all participants attending or involved with any United Nations system event. To that end, the Code of Conduct to Prevent Harassment, Including Sexual Harassment, at United Nations System Events will apply to all persons involved in the session. The text of the Code of Conduct and further information on it are available online (www.un.org/en/content/codeofconduct/).

VII. Letters of invitation and visas

Organizations with delegates requiring host country visas are therefore encouraged to complete, as soon as possible, the steps described in paragraph 4.

VIII. Accessibility services for persons with disabilities

16. The United Nations has established an Accessibility Centre located on level 1B of the Conference Building, reachable by the Secretariat escalators, as a part of the conference servicing facilities of the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management. The Centre offers information and communications technology to support those with auditory, visual or physical impairments. Assistive devices are available on site or as a loan to participants with disabilities. For more information, please visit <https://www.un.org/dgacm/en/content/accessibility>.
